

Dear Employer,

I am interested in a position with your company as a graphic designer. I am a well trained and experienced professional and I believe that I can enhance your internal skills in this area. Please review my resume, which discloses more than seven years of experience, including freelance and small business work, working independently and in a team environment in a corporate setting. I am trained and experienced in print design, typography layout, web design, flash animation and interface development, logo design and other graphic applications. More importantly, I believe that I can bring fresh ideas and imagination to all of my assignments that significantly adds value to the particular task.

I believe that I can contribute to your corporate image and communications capabilities and would appreciate the opportunity to discuss how I may accomplish this in the competitive design & creative industry.

I would appreciate and opportunity to discuss this with you at a convenient time. I can be reached at 831.917.1728

Sincerely,
